525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further, to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present, the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 95 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP, showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 5.

Impeachment Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—In the Senate the morning hour was occupied in the transaction of unimportant business. At its expiration, the President pro tem. said all legislative and executive business was ordered to cease for the purpose of proceeding with business connected with the impeachment. Therefore he vacated the chair, and the Chief Justice advanced up the aisle, clad in his official robes, accompanied by Justice Nelson, and escorted by the committee appointed for that purpose, followed by the Managers of the House, who stood behind the bar. The Chief Justice ascended the President's chair and said, in a solemn and impressive voice: "Senators: In obedience to your notice I have appeared to join with you in forming a Court of Impeachment for the trial of the President of the United States. I am ready to take the oath."

Judge Nelson then administered the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear that, in all things pertaining to the trial of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, I will do impartial justice according to the Constitution and laws, so help me God."

The Secretary then called the roll, each Senator advancing and taking the oath prescribed by the rules. The only Senators absent were Patterson of New Hampshire, Doolittle, Edmunds and Saulsbury. When the name of Senator Wade was called, Hendricks rose and put the question whether the Senator from Ohio, being the person who would succeed the President, was entitled to a seat as judge in the case. Sherman argued that the Constitution itself settled that question. It provides that the presiding officer shall not preside at the impeachment of the President, being silent as to the right to be a member of the Court. It allows by implication that he has that right. Howard took the same view.

Johnson assimilated this trial to an ordinary judicial proceeding. He said no judge would be allowed to sit in a case where he had a direct interest. He desired to postpone the decision till the precedents from the English House of Lords could be examined. The debate was continued at great length. Davis, Hendricks and Bayard argued against Wade's right to sit as a member of the Court.

Hendricks said that Wade ceased to be presiding officer of the Senate, he could not be sworn, but was now incompetent.

Morrill, Williams, Howard, Morton, Sumner, Sherman, Drake, Thayer and Howe, spoke in favor of Wade's right.

Morton argued that there was no person here authorized to make objection. It was the right of the party to waive his objection on the grounds of interest on the part of Judge or jury. When the President came here for trial he might ask why was not the Senator from Ohio sworn, the Senator was a member of the Senate, his right as such could not be taken away.

Thayer argued that if the question of interest was raised against the Senator from Ohio, it ought with greater reason to be raised against the Senator from Tennessee, (Patterson) who was closely related to the President, besides every Senator who might succeed to the office of the Presiding officer was also interested in the issue.

In the House, Meyers said the country was much interested in the announcement by the Committee of Ways and Means about the repeal of the tax on manufactures. As the determination of the question would take much time he would suggest that the bill be passed relieving manufacturers from this duty for a limited time.

Schenck said he would submit the question to the Committee to see if such a bill could be passed without deranging the general plan. The House soon after adjourned.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The steamer Constitution arrived this evening. Her detention was due to northwest gales and heavy head seas.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—The following card is published in the Bulletin to day:

Editors Bulletin: In your editorial columns of last evening, you state that the Central Pacific Railroad Company has bought the Southern Pacific Railroad, its franchise rights, credits, and all that pertains to it as a road, either in fact or prospectively, the visible transfer and possession to take place contemporaneously with the San Jose road. Suffice it to say that the statement is wholly unfounded and erroneous in every respect and particular. The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has not sold its franchise, nor has it ever received or discussed any proposition whatever to sell the same, neither has the company the most remote intention of so doing. We trust the editors of the Bulletin will not do anything to injure the enterprise or retard the construction of a work in which the State of California is so greatly interested.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—The following dispatch has been received:

SACRAMENTO, March 6. To the Bulletin: Any rumor to the effect that the Central Pacific or Western Pacific Railroad Company, or any person connected with either of them, has purchased the Southern Pacific Railroad, the San Francisco and San Jose, or the Sacramento and Vallejo Railroad, or any property or franchise connected therewith, or that any negotiation has been had tending to that result, is utterly without foundation.

[Signed]   LELAND STANFORD.

There is no truth about the purchase by the Southern Pacific Company, of the San Jose Road, as stated in your dispatches recently.

The Bulletin maintains that even if not actually consolidated, there is at least a contract or agreement between the C. P. and S. P. Cos., the result of which will be a consolidation of the various railroad interests.

Another installment of material for the Oregon Central Railroad arrived by the Hattie C. Hall from Boston, on Tuesday. Two other vessels are now on the way from the same port with similar invoices.

Union Convention

The Union County Convention met at the Court House at 1 P. M. to day. A permanent organization was effected by electing T. J. Dryer, President, and J. J. Hoffman, Howard Northrup and John Dolan, Secretaries.

On motion a committee of three consisting of John Powell, Jacob Stitzel and John Dolan were appointed on credentials. The report of the committee on Credentials having been received and adopted, on motion of J. P. O. Lowndsdale, Esq., a committee of three were appointed by the Chair, consisting of J. P. O. Lowndsdale, D. W. Williams, and Capt. Dan. O'Regan, to draft and report a series of resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention, who after a short absence, returned and through their Chairman, J. P. O. Lowndsdale reported the following, which on motion were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That as the chief object and purpose of the Union party during the war was to conquer the enemies of the Union, to establish the unity of the nation, and to assert the supremacy of the Constitution and laws, so now its chief object and purpose is to secure the fruits of the victory won, the reign of civil law and constitutional order throughout the land, and the speedy restoration of the States lately in rebellion to representation in Congress, and to all their relations with the Federal Government on a loyal basis, exacting only such conditions as are necessary to the safety of the nation and the protection of the citizen; that until these ends are assured we will not be diverted or turned aside from this great business; that it is the well known aim of the Union party more fully to define and establish firmly and forever that perfect civil and religious liberty which is now guaranteed by our State and national constitutions; that we are in favor of the largest measure of individual liberty consistent with the public good, and opposed to any legislation in derogation thereof, except to prevent acts which infringe the equal liberty of others; and that composed as our population is of many different kinds and nationalities, of different ancestral and social customs and opinions, we deem it the duty of all classes to cultivate a good understanding with each other, and to appreciate the good there is in each, without attempting any compulsory conformity; that it is our present work to re-establish the shaken foundations of the Republic, and we will not be tempted by any ingenuity of our adversaries to leave this work in order to contend about imaginary issues.

Resolved, That the Congress of the United States in the express terms of the Constitution is clothed with power to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the powers vested by the Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof; that the office and duty of the President of the United States is to execute the laws, and not to defeat them; and that a deliberate attempt by the Executive to thwart and defeat necessary measures of the law making power for the restoration of the Union is a high crime which calls for the exercise of the Supreme power of the Constitution, the last civil remedy of the State.

Resolved, That Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, having on the 21st day of February, A. D. 1868, signed and ordered a commission or letter of authority to one Lorenzo Thomas to act as Secretary of War ad interim and to take possession of the bonds, books, papers and other public property in the War Department, Congress at the time being in session, and there being no vacancy in said office, which act is by the laws of the United States declared to be a "high misdemeanor," the House of Representatives has but done its duty under the Constitution and carried out the will of the people of the United States in impeaching Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, for high crimes and misdemeanors.

Resolved, That the power to determine when and upon what conditions the States lately in rebellion should be restored to representation in Congress rests exclusively with the legislative department of the Government.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the general system of measures adopted by Congress, for the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; that our confidence in the ability, integrity and patriotism of our Senators and Representatives is unabated and we renew to them the assurance of our continued and unwavering support.

Resolved, That the credit and honor of the Federal Government must be maintained inviolate, that all our national debts and obligations must be punctually discharged in strict conformity to the terms in which they were contracted, and for which the faith of the Government has been solemnly pledged.

Resolved, That we demand the most rigid economy in the administration of the affairs both of the nation and the State, and such an adjustment of the burthens of taxation, by revision of the tariff and other revenue laws, as will cause them to fall equitably upon all classes of people.

Resolved, That the right of expatriation is the natural and inherent right of all people, and indispensable to the enjoyment of the rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that while the citizen owes allegiance to the Government, the Government owes protection to the citizen, and that it is the duty of the Government of the United States to protect all its citizens—native born and naturalized—in the full enjoyment of their rights as citizens of the United States, wherever and under whatever color or pretense those rights may be disregarded, whether in the States of the Union or upon foreign soil.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress assembled, in the introduction by the Chairman of the said Committee, "the Hon. N. P. Banks," of the following Preamble and Bill:

Whereas, The right of expatriation is the natural and inherent right of all people, and indispensable to the enjoyment of the rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, for the protection of which the Government of the United States is established; and

Whereas, In recognition of this principle, the Government has freely received emigrants from all nations and invested them with the rights of citizenship; and whereas it is claimed that all such American citizens with their descendants are subjects of foreign States and owe allegiance to the Government thereof; and

Whereas, It is necessary to the maintenance of public peace that the claim of foreign allegiance should be promptly and finally disavowed.

Therefore be it enacted, etc., That any declaration, instruction, opinion, order, or decision, of any officer of this Government which denies, restricts, impairs or questions the right of expatriation is hereby declared inconsistent with the fundamental principles of the Government, and therefore, null and void.

Sec. 2. That all naturalized citizens of the United States from foreign States shall be entitled to receive from the Government the same protection of person and property accorded to native born citizens in like situation.

Sec. 3. That whenever it shall be fully made known to the President that any citizen of the United States has been arrested, and is detained by any foreign Government in contravention of the purposes and intent of this act, upon the allegation that naturalization in the United States does not operate to dissolve his allegiance to his native sovereign, or if any citizen shall be arrested and detained whose release, upon demand shall have been unnecessarily delayed or refused, the President shall be and is hereby empowered to order the arrest of any foreign citizen or subject, and detain in custody such subject of a foreign Government who may be found within the jurisdiction of the United States; and the President shall, without delay, give information to Congress of any such proceeding under this act.

Resolved, That the power to regulate the elective franchise in the several States of the Union, while such States retain their relations to the Federal Government is vested in the States themselves, and that the Constitution of the United States confers upon the Federal Government no power over that question in such States.

Resolved, That we renew the expression of our gratitude to the heroic soldiers of the Republic, by whose patriotism, fortitude and valor the nation's life was defended, and the supremacy of its flag triumphantly asserted, and that we pledge to them, and to the widows and orphans of those who died in the service of their country our sympathies and substantial support.

Resolved, That Gen. U. S. Grant, the man who stands foremost for services rendered in the field in putting down armed rebellion has given unmistakable evidence that he is in earnest and heartily accord with the reconstruction measures of Congress. That he is [illegible] in peace as in war, [illegible] and patriotism, and that we unhesitatingly declare ourselves for him as the next President of the United States.

On motion, the Convention proceeded to the election of delegates to the State Convention, with the following result.

C. S. Silver, T. J. Dryer, J. P. O. Lowndsdale, J. H. Mitchell, C. G. Clark, William C. O'Hara, Jacob Stitzel, John Dolan, J. J. Hoffman, J. D. Biles, C. D. Burch, David Powell.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the delegates to the State Convention, be, and they are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Hon. W. W. Upton, as our candidate for Circuit Judge, for the Fourth Judicial District.

On motion of C. S. Silver, the Convention thanked J. T. Dryer for the able and impartial manner in which he presided as Chairman.

On motion, the proceedings of this Convention were directed to be inserted in the OREGONIAN, the Salem Unionist, at Salem, and the Sunday Bulletin.

Convention then adjourned.

Resolutions that ought to have Passed

A short time ago a Copperhead member of the New York Legislature offered a series of resolutions in that body strongly commending Johnson for his opposition to the measures of Congress and pledging him the support of the Democracy. Although the Copperheads have a large majority in the Assembly where the resolutions were offered, they promptly tabled them. Their author (Keady of Kings county) being an enthusiastic Johnson man, was determined not to give it up, and at a subsequent time moved that the resolutions be called up from the table, which prevailed, whereupon he made a flaming speech in favor of their adoption. Still it was "no go"—the resolutions being finally referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, and it was understood that by this action they were smothered entirely. It being evident that Johnson could not obtain the unqualified endorsement of the Democratic portion of the Assembly, and as the question of his public services had been raised in that body, the members on the Republican side deemed it proper that some expression in regard to him should be made by the Assembly and therefore a member from Jefferson county offered the following resolutions

Resolved, That the Committee on Federal Relations having charge of Mr Keady's resolutions with reference to President Johnson, be instructed to report herewith the following substitute

Resolved, That we are willing to forget the infamous words of Andrew Johnson in the Senate, in 1861, that "all traitors should be thrown from the Tarpeian Rock," his deeds as military Governor of Tennessee, in which position he gave the negroes more rights than any Abolitionist had previously dreamed of, his afterwards famous declaration that "treason should be made odious, and traitors punished," his refusal to see Miss Surratt when she came to plead for the life of her mother, his subsequent action in hanging that mother two days after she was convicted, and his approval of the sentence of Wirtz, the jailor of Andersonville. These we are willing to forget in the light of President Johnson's present position

Resolved, That Mr Keady, of Kings, is hereby delegated a committee of one to present the above resolutions and amendments to President Johnson, provided he does it without expense to the State, and is willing to pledge his word that he will not act on the strength of these resolves for an internal revenue position.

The resolutions did not pass, but they ought to have been passed by the unanimous vote of the Democratic members. They had then an opportunity for endorsing Johnson which they will not have soon again.

New Book of Etymology.—A new treatise on English Etymologies, published by A S Barnes & Co., has appeared, a copy of which is before us. Unlike most other Etymologies of the language heretofore published, this book is not confined to words derived from the Latin and Greeks, but is intended also to embrace all the contributions from other languages of which it is thought [illegible] to acquire a knowledge at home or in [illegible]. Particular attention is given to Saxon, Danish, German and French etymologies. The subject matter of the book is exceedingly compact, and conveniently arranged, and even the slight examination which we have been able to give it [illegible] us to believe that it could be used with great advantage in our schools. For sale by Harris & Holman, Portland.

The Record says there are various rumors current as to the sending of those condoling resolutions by the Salem Democracy to Johnson. Some say they were not sent; others that when they [illegible] to Washington, an operator telegraphed back to know what name to put to them, and was told to put any d—d fool's name he pleased. A very zealous Democrat was asked immediately on the passage to pay the bill, and his reply was, "If the old fool wants them let him pay for them when he gets them." Take it all around, Alderman Johnson will feel very much flattered when he hears from the Salem Democracy, especially if he comes down well with the stamps for the privilege.

In regard to the boundary line between this State and California, the Yreka Journal says: "If the Oregon line is established 12 miles further south than at present, as we hear it reported by the Klamath Lake settlers, it will take from our [illegible] several fine stock ranches as well as several thousand head of stock. The survey is said to have been made before, at least 12 miles north of the parallel of latitude established as the [illegible] line. Perhaps it would be a good idea for our California authorities to see to this matter, as a stretch of imagination on the Oregon side [illegible] all Siskiyou along with the 12 miles claimed."

The "lost cause" mourners in Jackson county are talking of "risin agin the Radicals." The [illegible] says that "after the receipt of the impeachment news, several old fogy Democrats went moping round the streets predicting war. As usual, they were generally the kind that have [illegible] the savory spoils of office more than they have gunpowder. Democracy murdered a President [illegible] war followed; and it's a pity if we can't put one on trial, 'constitutionally,' without another baptism of fire and sword."

It is reported that a large number of the "Democracy" had a most refreshing and joyous time in this city on Saturday night. A crowd from Bevens's got hold of a "nigger," and proceeded to vindicate their theory of a "white man's government in a most enthusiastic manner. They beat, kicked, gouged, scratched and dragged him through the streets, enjoying their "constitutional rights" to their hearts' content. It was a rare opportunity, and they made the most of it.

A Consistent Record

In one of General Grant's letters to the President in regard to the War Office affair, we find the following, which we believe was not reported here by telegraph

"The performance of the promises alleged to have been made by me would have introduced a resistance to the law and an inconsistency with the whole history of my connection with the suspension of E M Stanton. From our conversation and my written protest of August 1st, 1867, against the removal of Mr Stanton you must have known my greatest objection to his removal was the fear that some one would be appointed in his stead who would by opposition to the laws relating to the restoration of the Southern States to their proper relations to the Government embarrass the army in the performance of the duties especially imposed upon it by these laws, and that it was to prevent such an appointment that I accepted the office of Secretary of War ad interim, and not for the purpose of enabling you to get rid of Mr Stanton by withholding it from him in opposition to law."

This is clear and explicit. General Grant's recent conduct in this matter is perfectly consistent with his action last summer, when he protested against the removal of Stanton and endeavored to prevent it. A comparison of his written protests of last August with his recent action in retiring from the office when the Senate refused to concur in the suspension of Stanton, shows most conclusively that he has acted throughout with a consistent and honest purpose. That he has been of immense service in checking the high handed proceedings of a treacherous and debauched Executive, is apparent. Too independent, patriotic and incorruptible to be used by Johnson, he has stood faithfully by the loyal people and endeavored to secure to them the righteous fruits of their great though costly triumph. For these services, not less than his services in the field, he will be chosen by universal acclaim as the leader of the Union party in the Presidential campaign.

A San Francisco paper says. "The last six years have witnessed the emancipation of 25,000,000 serfs in Russia, 4,000,000 slaves in the United States and 3,000,000 in Brazil. Thus the crime and curse of slavery has been removed from three great empires, but wonderful to relate, Democracy, far from rejoicing in this glorious result, goes into a paroxysm of weeping over it."

COPPERHEAD COUNTY CONVENTION—THE FAITHFUL DEFRAUDED OF THEIR RIGHT TO MAKE A TICKET SULLIVAN USES UP GROVER—A RICH ANECDOTE

SALEM, March 7, 1868

EDITOR OREGONIAN

This is the day of the County Convention of that party ironically called the Democracy. L F Grover is Chairman. At the opening of the Convention a committee was appointed on order of business, and a report from that committee was read when the Convention met in the afternoon—the Convention having had an hour's recess at noon. The report favored the nomination of candidates for county officers, as well as delegates to the State Convention, notwithstanding the call for the Convention distinctly announced the object to be simply the choosing of delegates, and the precinct meetings were held with reference to this matter only. Whether this is a trick to enable office seekers to cheat the party at large out of any voice in the selection of a county ticket, or whether it was merely to save the expense and trouble of another Convention—there being no hope of electing the ticket nominated—need not be determined at present. At all events the report was adopted, and the people of the party are thus defrauded out of any expression as to who they will have for standard bearers at the June election. This injustice, however, it is presumed will create no dissatisfaction in a party whose members are accustomed to march in rank and file like cattle, under the lash of party leaders.

The Convention adopted a platform made to order by the old hacks of the party. This platform is, of course, made of bonds, bondholders and taxes, with negro equality for veneering. The "Democracy" of Marion county insist that Congress shall pass a law subjecting United States bonds to taxation, notwithstanding the fact that the Government raised the law upon which these bonds were issued by expressly stipulating that they should not be taxed, and notwithstanding the uniform decisions of the Supreme Court that the Government cannot thus repudiate its contracts. This party presumes much upon the ignorance of its masses, but no person who has watched matters closely, will be so bold as to say it presumes too much.

Last night P. C Sullivan, Esq., addressed the Union men of Salem—a full house and an enthusiastic meeting. He completely overturned the argument made by L F Grover for the "Democracy" (I must be allowed to use quotation marks) in the afternoon, not leaving one stone upon another. The more intelligent of the "Democrats" agree with us that Grover was utterly used up.

The Union men of old Marion are wide awake, and mean to preserve their ancient glory in the approaching contest.

McDonald, of the Unionist, touched the "species" lightly with the spear of Ithuriel this morning, and the effect is magical. Fifty pounds of nitro glycerine could not have stirred up a greater commotion among the faithful. Greek fire is promised, if there should be occasion for it, but it is thought milder means will be sufficient to keep the "species" from inaugurating rebellion in this county, although they threaten all sorts of things.

By the way, a "good one" is related to me which is said to have occurred at a "Democratic" precinct meeting here a few days since. The meeting, composed of a baker's dozen of broken down politicians, and two or three of the rank and file being desirous of effecting the escape of Moses from the Congressional Egyptians that are after him, unanimously resolved that they "would support him against the unconstitutional proceedings of the impeachers," and ordered the resolutions forwarded to Andy by telegraph. A motion was then made for a Committee to raise money—about one hundred dollars—to pay for the telegraphing, when one of the aforesaid rank and file, arose and said. "Mr Cheerman! Mister Cheerman! I don't go nary cent on this thing. Them resolutions about supportin' of ole Johnson is all right enuff I 'spose, but I haint got nary red to give to this Committee. If the d—d ole hulk wants them resolutions let him pay for 'em hisself." This shot settled the case. The meeting adjourned.

RAFFAELLE

English Female Type Setters. The attempt in England to employ females in type setting seems to have been a failure. A London paper says

The girls manage to scramble up their reprint copy pretty tolerably but when they come to correct at the stone they don't like it at all and "squabbles" of all sorts are the consequence. Then, again, stopping after eight o'clock to get a proof out is quite out of the question. Sundry whistles and signals are often heard from their anxious swains in waiting, who cast up small pebbles to the windows and then the girls are artful enough to throw their bonnets and cloaks down to their sweethearts in the street from the top windows and leisurely passing down stairs in their office costume, as if merely from one room to another, they quickly slope off in a mysterious manner. In spite therefore of much real humbug which has been expended on the scheme the female compositor idea is another proof that whatever may be woman's mission or whatever her proper place may be, it is not in the printing office

Bobbie Burns—His Natal Day.—The 109th anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns was celebrated by the Burns Club of New York in their usual style—toasts, songs, speeches, and clinking of glasses, with interludes of reading of dispatches from the various clubs in other places. The telegram from the London Burns Club was read at the table ten minutes (Greenwich street time) before it was born in London—a most remarkable case of premature delivery. The labored speech of the evening was made by Hosea B Perkins, a rising Democratic politician of no small power of jaw. The most interesting speech was that of Robert Hamilton, a Scottish gentleman now on his travels in America, who was introduced to the meeting as a member of the Reform Club of London, a friend of John Bright, a grandson of that Gavin Hamilton who was the friend and patron of Robert Burns, and finally as a gentleman who would soon represent Burns' native country in Parliament. Mr Hamilton interspersed his remarks with several reminiscences of many distinguished [illegible] and living, including Charles Dickens, of whom he said there was, during the rebel war no more steadfast supporter of the Union in Great Britain.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MARCH 7

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Impeachment

CHICAGO, March 6.—The Senate adjourned last night [illegible] Mr W[illegible] [illegible]

A Republican [illegible] says that [illegible] Chief Justice Chase [illegible] [illegible] against W[illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] Senate [illegible] the [illegible] Mary[illegible] [illegible] the eff[illegible] Chase [illegible] McA[illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] feeling

The Times' special says several Republican Senators had a protracted and pleasant meeting with Chase after [illegible] [illegible] rules for the government of the Court will be taken up and formally adopted after the [illegible] is fully organized. [illegible]

CHICAGO, March [illegible]. [illegible] telegraphic [illegible] Washington [illegible] last night [illegible] The Senate [illegible] court [illegible] without wrangling [illegible] [illegible] of Wade

Mr Dix took the floor and was [illegible] Mr Howard. The Chief Justice requested the point of order to be reduced to writing, which was done. The point of order was that the objection to administering the oath to Mr Wade was not in order under the Constitution and the rules of the Senate. In the meantime Dix [illegible] attempted to continue his speech, but was interrupted and called to order by other Senators.

The Chief Justice stated that his point of order was for the Senate to decide and Mr Dix again attempted to address the Senate, but was instantly called to order on the ground that the point of order is not debatable. Things began to be considerably mixed. Several Senators attempting to call Dix to order and the latter apparently bound to proceed.

Mr Howard made the point of order that the 23d rule adopted by the Senate required all questions of order to be decided without debate.

The Chief Justice ruled that the court was not yet organized, therefore the 23d rule was not binding.

Mr Drake immediately appealed from the decision, and the decision was sustained by ayes 24, noes 20. The following Republicans voted with the Democrats to sustain the Chief Justice. Messrs Anthony, [illegible] Fowler, Frelinghuysen, Grimes, Henderson, Morrill of Maine, Pomeroy, Sherman, Sprague, Van Winkle, Willey and Williams.

Mr Dix again attempted to speak when Mr Conness made the point of order, and when this had been settled he again took the floor but Mr Stewart interrupted him, after which Mr Dix in apparently in despair surrendered the floor altogether.

Mr Hendricks followed in a brief speech at the close of which he withdrew all his objections to the swearing in of Mr Wade. The remainder of the Senators on the list were then sworn.

The Chief Justice then stated that rules must be made and adopted.

The Court then adopted the rules as adopted by the Senate.

Mr Howard moved that the Secretary of the Senate inform the House of the organization of the Court, which was done, and the Managers soon appeared before the bar of the Senate and asked through Mr Bingham their chairman, that Andrew Johnson be summoned to appear before the bar of the Senate to answer the articles.

On motion of Mr Howard, summons was issued returnable Friday, March 13th.

Mr Anthony offered a motion to amend the rules so as to allow the Chief Justice either to decide the question of order or submit them to the Court as he might think proper. Without action the Court adjourned to Friday the 13th.

The Senate then held a short executive session and adjourned.

The House proceedings are not received but are unimportant.

The bill passed limiting Mr Butler of Tennessee by modifying the test oath.

Washington Specials

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Tribune's special says a summons for the appearance of Johnson will be served by the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate. It is signed by the Chief Justice and the Sergeant-at-Arms is required to serve it in four days before it is made returnable. It is endorsed on the back in a manner similar to writs and summons used in ordinary courts. The President will respond in person and then wait the action of the Senate. In his defence to Bingham's demurrer, when dismissal of the complainant and finishing of the articles will be demanded.

The Times despatches say the action of the House in the case of Butler of Tennessee is exceedingly significant and important as it establishes the manner in which persons who cannot take the oath may hereafter be admitted to seats when elected to Congress. The bill reported by the Election Committee in Butler's case was drawn with special reference to the fact that it established a final precedent, and was passed by a large majority—many Republican members voting for it. It provides that all persons who have been relieved from political disabilities incurred by participating in the rebellion shall not be required to take that portion of the oath which states that they have not given aid and comfort, etc.

Senator Elected in Maryland.

ANNAPOLIS, March 6.—Geo. R. Vicker, of Kent county, is elected U. S. Senator. Phillip F. Thomas was the next highest candidate.

Maryland Republican Convention

BALTIMORE, March 7.—The Republican State Convention favors Grant for President and Creswell for Vice President.

Telegraph Matters

ALBANY, March 7.—A bill is introduced in the Senate regulating charges of telegraph companies within the State for transmission of messages.

Riot on Ward's Island.

NEW YORK, March 6.—A serious riot broke out among the emigrants on Ward's Island this morning. Bad feeling for a long time had existed between the Germans and Irish. The latter 700 strong attacked their enemies who also put themselves in a sort of battlearray. The Irishmen seized pitchforks, clubs, axes and long poles with sharp points, &c. The Germans barricaded themselves in the basements of the hospital building. The Irish broke down the doors. The fight was progressing quite fiercely when a strong force of police arrived and succeeded in quieting the row, though they were compelled to shoot down four of the belligerents; eight or ten of the rioters were wounded more or less seriously; thirty-six were secured and confined. The emigrants are still excited and declare that the fight will be renewed when the police leave the island.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Tribune's special says the President states that he has thus far retained only one gentleman for his defence, namely David Dudley Field. He has also written or telegraphed to Wm M. Evarts, W. S. Groesbeck and others, but has received no reply as yet.

Chief Justice Chase entertained no intention of promoting the impeachment trial. It is understood that the 9 [illegible] Committee of managers has agreed that it is for Mr Chase to decide as to the admissibility of Wade and he will be called upon to act. The President's friends argue that the trial cannot be finished during the next four or five months.

Attorney General Stanberry was closeted with the President several hours yesterday.

The Tribune's New Orleans special gives the proceedings of the Republican Convention. It sympathizes with Congress and recommends the removal of Hancock and declares that they regard cheers for Jeff Davis and Hancock by some in a sufficient cause for removal. Hancock and Jeff Davis were seen in the same carriage to night.

The Democratic State Committee of Louisiana met to day. Gen. [illegible] made a harangue, sustaining Johnson and indicating force as the only means of resisting Congress.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Specials say the Senate yesterday considered the nomination of Cox as Minister to Austria and postponed action. It maintained that pending impeachment the Senate should act on no important nomination.

A double guard is still maintained around the War Office.

The Times special learns from a reliable source that Wade will resign his position as President of the Senate in the event of the conviction of Johnson, thereby leaving the office open either to a new election by the Senate or to the Speaker of the House, who would become President in the absence of any Vice President. Although this appears sensational, the source from which the information is derived warrants its publication.

The Herald's special says the forthcoming statement of the public debt will show a reduction of five or six millions of gold in the Treasury.

CHICAGO, March 7.—A heavy rain storm which has continued for the last four days has seriously interrupted telegraphic communication in all quarters. The rain shows little sign of abatement and apprehensions are entertained that there will be many disasters by flood.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—The British ship [illegible] with wheat for Liverpool, while beating out of the harbor yesterday missed stays when off Point Diablo and drifted ashore in the south bight close to the Mountain Lake Water Works. It is thought that she will be got off with but slight damage.

Chas C Butler was thrown from his buggy yesterday and had his skull fractured. It is not known whether his injuries are likely to prove fatal.

Creed Raymond publishes a card denying that he is a candidate for Congress.

The members of the chorus of the Metropolitan Theatre last night had occasion to use pearl white in their make up for the evening performance. By a blunder of the apothecary from whom the powder was purchased they were furnished with a powder supposed to have been caustic potash, which made the skin and hair fly wherever it was applied. The members of the chorus propose to sue the apothecary.

Twelve hundred acres at Saucelito has just been sold for $45 per acre.

No arrivals.

The day after the drawing of the quarter million prize in the Vienna lottery the report was set afloat that the fortunate individual was a female pastry cook in the Archduke Charles Hotel. She was neither young nor fair but yet received a dozen offers of marriage in the course of one afternoon. She can make her selection at her leisure, as she did not draw the prize.

Rather Rough Challenge. The Billiard [illegible], a monthly New York paper of that name published in the interest of Kavanagh & Decker, Billiard Manufacturers of New York, has the following challenge in its November number, which we consider worthy to call the attention of our Billiard Manufacturers of this coast

CHALLENGE. We will place $1,000 in the hands of any responsible party, whenever any manufacturer or manufacturers of Billiard Tables in the world shall engage to [illegible] us to test the merits of his or their cushions with ours, and to stand or abide the decision. The cushions to be submitted to the examination of a committee of impartial and scientific men, who shall have power to investigate their merits thoroughly by actual trial with balls [illegible] [illegible]

"This wager is not offered for the purpose of winning money, but solely to afford us an opportunity to prove that our cushions are superior to all others, and we should prefer that the money staked should go to some charitable object."

We invite the special attention of Messrs. Phelan & Collender to this challenge. fed27 12 6t

OREGON CITY ITEMS.—The subjoined items are from the Enterprise of Saturday, March 7th. We learn from Mr. S C Lewis, that the measles is just now making a general sweep, through the Mount Pleasant neighborhood. Adults and children are all taken, when subject to it. Mr. H. T. Delashmutt, of Oswego, set a trap for a catamount, on Saturday last, near Oswego Lake, and the next day took from it a huge monster, measuring 3 feet 11 inches in length, and 2 feet 2½ inches high. Pigs, chickens, sheep and such like domestic animals have been lost in that vicinity of late. The road between this city and Oswego will most likely be built. At the beginning of this week the subscription list had upon it responsible names for a considerable amount, and others have promised to subscribe. Mr. Delashmutt is taking an active part in this matter, and should be assisted through with it. The road has been cut out to Walling's place, this side of Oswego. Recorder J. M. Moore has just completed the census report of this city, from which we are informed that there is an increase of 80 over last year. The total number of

White Males is	624
Females	459
Total	1,083

There are 230 males over four and under 20 years of age—196 females over four and under 20—64 males and 43 females under four years. The total number of voters is 287. The total population last year was 1,003.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON JUDGE.—The following are the proceedings of Saturday, the 7th:

Margaret B. Moore vs Peter Moore, plaintiff granted a divorce from defendant.

C. H. Egan vs Charles Hopkins and wife, motion for a new trial overruled, judgment on verdict for plaintiff, for $365, coin.

Portland McAdamized Road Company vs the city of Portland, case sent to Marion county for disposition of ..ser, and then to be remanded to this county.

State vs Joseph Taylor; motion for certificate of probable cause of error overruled and refused.

C. B. Comstock & Co vs D. W. Williams, motion for a new trial overruled; judgment on verdict for defendant for costs.

H. L. Reed, administrator of the estate of J. N. Dorpell, deceased, vs J. B. Welsh, judgment by default for $146 85, coin.

S. Sherlock & Co. vs. Hirdon Isaacs; motion for new trial overruled; judgment on verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $40 and costs.

OUTRAGE UPON A NEGRO.—Saturday evening, a white man and a negro had, as the story goes, a difficulty in the ... of which, it is alleged the latter struck another man, the friend of the former. Shortly afterward, a crowd of men caught the negro and hustled him along the street toward the jail, meantime bestowing upon him kicks and cuffs very freely and tearing his clothing. Arrived at the jail, the crowd met a police officer who took the negro away from them and put him in the jail. We are informed, with what truth we do not know, that ... three of the men represented themselves as officers. If this be so, the authorities of the city owe it to ... to institute an investigation, and if any be found to have violated law in this way, they should be severely punished. From all that we can learn, the negro is an inoffensive person and the man who was ... is satisfied that the negro did not intend to hit him. The subsequent outrage upon the negro was ... without justification. There will be, doubtless, to-day, charges preferred against the perpetrators for ... and battery, if not for more grave offenses.

P.... FOR PORTLAND.—The following is the list of ... en route to this city per steamship John L. Stephens, which sailed from San Francisco, on Friday, March 6th: S. G. Reed and wife, E. D. Dunakin and wife, John White, Wm Lauer, Charles Lauer, J. J. Winsley, H. B. Minor, J. S. Rosenbaum, C. S. Fechheimer, Alf. Hallett, Jas. Crawford, G. C. Webster, M. Wilkins, A. B. Mason, Missy Conn, G. R. Sevany, W. G. Burnett, A. F. Crane, Louis Haynar, A. T. Plugstone, Buck Stockton, A. Franks, B. Brennon, G. W. Hume, Fred. Hogue, W. O. ..., J. H. Cratie, J. M. Bryant, W. F. Colt, wife and child, D. M. Guthrie, G. M. Fitch, C. A. Boffinger, Geo. A. Buffinger, Mrs. Rose Alexander, Maj. Simons Francis, U. S. A., W. H. Scott and wife, Mrs. F. A. ..., Miss M. E. Hutchins, G. Wengate, H. P. ..., A. B. Hunsley, A. J. Hoffman, E. J. Delfart, E. Peabody, Peter Smith, C. Hopkins, G. W. Walsh, G. W. Vaughn, Miss Nellie Smith, John Green, H. W. Hyman, P. C. Schulz, F. Lafollett, J. B. Duke and 32 others.

IMPORTANT SUITS.—Among the new and important suits just beginning in Oregon Courts, says the Enterprise, is that of Geo. La Roque, D. W. Burnsides, A. J. ... and W. C. Johnson and John Dement, executors of the estate of Wm. Dement, deceased, against the ... Transportation Co., a corporation; A. A. McCully, D. McCully, E. N. Cooke, T. McF. Patton, S. ..., Geo. A. Pease, Joseph Kellogg, C. W. Pope, ..., J. W. Cochrane, Geo. Marshall, and L. E. ..., defendants. The case is brought partly with a view of compelling the cancellation of Stock in the P. T. Co., alleged to have been fraudulently issued last ... It will be heard in the Circuit Court of Marion ... next term. The P. T. Company have also commenced an ejectment suit against the Willamette Steam ... Company, to be tried in the Circuit Court for Clackamas county this month.

... DELEGATES.—At the Democratic primary ..., Saturday evening, the following persons were ... to the County Convention to be held in this city on the 11th inst: First Ward—Wm Cree, Wm ..., H. F. Bluch, A. E. Lovejoy, Joseph Tucker, W ..., J. C. Ainsworth, D F Harrington, Ed. Kuhle, ... Weatherby, John Steers, Joseph Oppenheimer, H. L. ..., A. White, B. G. Whitehouse. Second Ward ..., Blanchard, John Costello, J. Fleischner, J. F ..., J. W. Sutton, U. H. Hicks, T. Burk, C. Fechheimer, W. Weatherford, Eugene Semple, W. Seymour, Wm. Beck. Third Ward—B. J. Ladd, James Wilson, J. E. Hayden, A. E. Wait, R. F. Hensill, A. P. ..., W. W. Chapman and J. H. Reed.

MILITARY ELECTION.—At the annual meeting of the ... Guard, held on Friday evening, the 6th inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Capt., Chas. Mills; 1st Lieutenant, Wm. Young; 2d Lieutenant, Alex. Campbell; 1st Sergeant, James A. ...; 2d Sergeant, Wm. Saunders; 3d Sergeant, E. J. Jeffrey; 4th Sergeant, Horatio Cook, Jr.; 5th Sergeant, ...; 1st Corporal, John Cottar; 2d Corporal, Geo. Price; 3d Corporal, John Farley; 4th Corporal, C. ... Wm Young was chosen Tr...er.

... CONVENTION IN CLACKAMAS CO.—The Union Convention for Clackamas county was held at Oregon City, on Saturday. We have not full particulars, but learn, ..., that Messrs. W. W. Buck, Wm. Elliott, ..., F. O. McCown and Benj. Killen were chosen delegates to the State Convention—two delegates not known ... J. S. Ryestrom was nominated for sheriff; E. T. T. ..., for County Clerk; D. P. Trullinger, for Representative, and D. P. Thompson, for State Senator. The ... of the ticket is unknown.

... ACCIDENT.—A passenger by the up river boats of Saturday, informs us that on Thursday at the Magnolia Mills, Albany, a son of Mr. J. H. Foster was accidentally caught by a belt and had one arm broken in two places and was otherwise so badly hurt, that, at first it was thought doubtful if he could live. On Saturday morning, however, he was so much improved that ... were entertained of his recovery.

COMPLIMENTARY BALL.—The pupils of Prof. Cardinell ... to give their teacher a complimentary ball at Oro Fino Hall, in the course of two or three weeks—time not yet definitely fixed. At this party the pupils will perform ... or four dances, no one else appearing on the floor, ... will afford an opportunity for others to judge of their proficiency. As a compliment from the pupils to the P..., this will be a very handsome one.

REPORT ON THE INSANE ASYLUM.—The report of Dr. J. S. Giltner, ... Physician of the Insane Asylum, ... ending Feb. 29th, shows, patients remaining, Nov. 30, 1867, ninety. Since that date 3 have ..., 4 admitted. The names of the deceased are P. Carley, R. C. Miller, Charles Illidge, Michael Kelly. Admitted, George Sipes, Michael Keilly, Elizabeth Harlow, John C. Looty.

....—Messrs. Blogn & Moskowitz have removed their "New York Store" to the handsome brick store, No. 83 Front street, formerly occupied by Goldsmith Bros. As they import largely from the East, they can offer superior inducements to purchasers. Do not fail to give them a call when looking for anything in the line of dry goods, cloths, clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

STATE DEPUTY I. O. G. T.—The Enterprise says: Capt. A. J. Borland, of Milwaukie, has received the appointment of State Deputy for this State, and the Territory of Washington, and will soon take his departure to canvass for "the good of the Temperance Order."

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E J Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

Extracting Teeth by Dr. Richardson's apparatus, with Ether Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxyde (laughing gas).

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

BUCHU.

(From Dispensatory of the United States.)

DIOSMA CRENATA - - - - - BUCHU LEAVES.

Properties.—Their odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, their taste bitterish and analogous to mint.

Medical Properties and Uses.—Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the Urinary Organs.

They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs—such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostrate and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life, after Confinement or Labor Pains; Bed-wetting in children.

In Affections Peculiar to Females, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in CHLOROSIS OR RETENTION, IRREGULARITY, PAINFULNESS OR SUPPRESSION OF CUSTOMARY EVACUATIONS, ULCERATED OR SCHIRROUS STATE OF THE UTERUS, LEUCORRHEA OR WHITES.

Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.—This medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as Pain and Inflammation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick Dust Deposit, and Mucus or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled or Delicate Constitutions, of both Sexes, attended with the following symptoms:—Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, &c.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

Is Diuretic and Blood Purifying, and Cures all Diseases Caused by Habits of Dissipation, Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, &c., superceding Copaiba in affections for which it is used, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleets of long standing, and Syphilitic Affections—in these diseases, used in connection with HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

The Pain Killer Abroad.

The following correspondence will show something of the estimation in which Perry Davis' Pain Killer is held on the shores of the Mediterranean. It is not surprising that a medicine that receives such testimonials as this from abroad, should find well sustained and increasing appreciation at home.

U. S. CONSULATE, TUNIS, Dec 27, 1866.

To the Proprietors of Davis' Pain Killer, Providence, R. I.—Gentlemen:—The enclosed has just been received from my friend Tulin, late Consul General of Norway and Sweden and of Prussia in this place. No comment is needed. Truly yours, AMOS PERRY.

GENOA, December 16, 1866.

Dear Sir:—Accept thanks for the third supply of Davis' "Pain Killer." This medicine has often relieved me of serious indisposition, and I would not on any account consent to be without it both for myself and my family.

I have recommended it to my late colleagues and friends in Tunis and Genoa, and at my request one of the largest druggists in this city has sent an order to New York to meet the demand in this place.

Yours truly, G. A. TULIN,
Ex Consul Gen'l of Sweden, Norway & Prussia in Tunis.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers;
Fortifies the system against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or
PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The Old Man's Story

I shall never forget the commencement of the temperance reformation. I was a child at the time, some ten years of age. Our home had every comfort, and my kind parents idolized me, their only child. Wine was often on the table, and both my father and my mother gave it to me in the bottom of their morning glass.

One Sunday at church a startling announcement was made to our people. I knew nothing of its purport, but there was much whispering by the men. The pastor said that on the next evening there would be a meeting, and an address upon the evils of intemperance in the use of all alcoholic liquors. He expressed himself ignorant of the meeting, and could not say what course it would be best to pursue in the matter.

The subject of the meeting came up at our table after the service, and I questioned my father about it with all the curious earnestness of a child. The whispers and words which had been dropped in my hearing, clothed the whole affair with great mystery to me, and I was all earnestness to learn the strange thing. My father merely said it was a scheme to unite the Church and State.

The night came and groups of people gathered on the tavern steps, and I heard the jest and laugh, and saw the drunken men come reeling out of the bar room.

I urged my father to let me go but he at first refused. Finally, thinking it would be a harmless gratification of my curiosity, he put on his hat, and we passed across the green to the church. I well remember how the people appeared as they came in, seeming to wonder what kind of an exhibition was to come off.

In the corner was the tavern keeper, and around him a number of friends. For an hour the people of the place continued to come in till there was a fair houseful. All were curiously watching the door, and apparently wondering what would appear next. The parson stole in and took his seat behind a pillar in the gallery, as if doubtful of the propriety of being in the church at all.

Two men finally came in and went forward to the altar and took their seats. All eyes were fixed upon them, and a general stillness prevailed throughout the church.

The men were unlike in appearance, one being short, thick set in his build, and the other tall and well formed. The younger had the manner and dress of a clergyman, a full round face, and a quiet, good-natured look as he leisurely looked around his audience.

But my childish interest was all in the old man. His broad, deep chest, and unusual hight looked giant-like, as he strode up the isle. His hair was white, his brow deeply scarred with furrows, and around his handsome mouth were lines of calm and touching sadness. His eyes were black and restless, and kindled as the tavern keeper uttered a low jest. His lips were compressed and a crimson flush went and came over his pale cheek. One arm was off near the elbow, and there was a wide scar just above his right eye.

The younger finally arose and stated the object of the meeting, and asked if there was a clergyman present to say a prayer. Our pastor kept his seat, and the speaker himself made a short [illegible], at the conclusion calling upon any one to make remarks. The pastor arose under the gallery, and attacked the position of the speaker, using the arguments I often have heard since and concluded by denouncing those engaged in the movement as meddlesome fanatics, who wished to break up the time honored usages of good society, and injure the business of respectable men. At the conclusion of his remarks the tavern keeper and his friends got up a cheer, and the current of feeling was evidently against the strangers and their plea.

While the pastor was speaking the old man leaned [illegible] and fixed his dark eyes upon him, as if [illegible] every word.

As [illegible] took his seat, the old man arose, [illegible] in its symmetry, and his [illegible] as he inhaled the breath through [illegible] nostrils. To me at that time, [illegible] something awe-inspiring in the appearance of the old man as he stood, his full, dark eye [illegible], his teeth shut hard and a silence of death [illegible] throughout the church.

[illegible] his gaze upon the tavern keeper, and [illegible] eye lighted and kindled for a moment. The sweat [illegible] upon his forehead, and [illegible] his eyes glittered and [illegible]. The tavern keeper [illegible] glance, and I felt a relief [illegible] old man withdrew his gaze. For a moment [illegible] lost in thought, and then in a [illegible] tone he commenced. There was [illegible] voice, a thrilling sweetness and [illegible] heart in the [illegible] had been rounded. My [illegible] had become fixed upon the eye of [illegible] I had never before seen him exhibit. I can but briefly remember the [illegible] of what the old man said, though the scene is as vivid before me as any I ever witnessed. "My friends, I am a stranger in your village, and I trust I may call you my friends. A new star has arisen and there is hope in the dark night that hangs like a pall of gloom over our country."

With a thrilling depth of voice, the speaker continued: "Oh, God, Thou who lookest with compassion upon the most erring of earth's frail children, I thank Thee that a brazen serpent has been [illegible], at which a drunkard may look and be [illegible]. That a beacon has burst out upon the dark sea that surrounded him, which shall guide him to [illegible] and heaven—the bruised and [illegible]."

It is [illegible] what power there is in some voices. [illegible] voice was low and measured, but a [illegible] every tone, and before I knew [illegible] dropped on my hand followed by others [illegible]. The old man brushed one [illegible] and continued:

"[illegible] Christians! you have just heard that I am a fanatic. I am not. As God knows my own heart, I came here just to do good. Hear me and be just.

"I am an old man, standing alone at the end of life's journey. There is a deep sorrow in my heart and tears in my eyes. I have journeyed over [illegible] ocean, and of life's brightest hopes have been wrecked; I am without [illegible] or home! It was not so once."

No eye could withstand the touching pathos of the old man. I noticed a tear on the lid of my father's eye and no longer felt ashamed of my own.

"No, my friends, it was not once so. Away over the dark waves which have wrecked my hopes, there is a blessed light of happiness and home. I [illegible] to it again convulsively for the shrines of household idols that once were mine, but mine no more."

The old man seemed looking away through vacancy upon some bright vision, his lips apart, and his finger extended. I involuntarily turned in the direction where it pointed, dreading to see some shadow invoked by its magic moving.

"I once had a mother. With her old heart crushed with sorrow she went down to the grave. I once had a wife—a fair, angel hearted creature as ever smiled in an earthly home. Her eyes were as mild as a summer's sky, and her heart as faithful and true as ever guarded and cherished a husband's love. Her blue eye grew dim as the floods of sorrow [illegible] its brightness, and the living heart wrung till every fibre was broken. I once had a noble, a bright and beautiful boy, but he was driven out from the ruins of [illegible], but he my old heart yearns to know if he is yet living. I once had a babe, a sweet, tender blossom, but these hands destroyed it, and it lives with One who loveth children.

"Do not be startled, friends—I am not a murderer in the common acceptance of the term. Yet there is a [illegible] light in my evening sky. A spirit mother rejoices over the return of her prodigal son. The wife smiles on him who turns back to virtue and honor. The angel child visits me at nightfall, and I feel the hallowed touch of a tiny palm upon my cheek. My brave boy, if yet he lives, would forgive the sorrowing old man for the [illegible] which sent him out into the world, and the blow which maimed him for life. God forgive me the ruin which I brought upon me and [illegible]."

He again wiped a tear from his eye. My father watched him with a strange intensity, and a [illegible] unusually pale, and excited by some strange emotion.

"I was once a fanatic, and madly followed the malign light which led me to ruin. I was a fanatic when I sacrificed my wife, children, happiness and home, to the accursed demon of the bowl. I once adored the gentle being whom I wronged so deeply.

"I was a drunkard. From respectability and influence I plunged into degradation and poverty. I dragged my family down with me. For years I saw her cheek grow pale and her step weary. I left her alone amid the wreck of her home idols, and rioted at the tavern. She never complained, yet she and the children often went hungry.

"One New Year's night I returned late to the hut where charity had given us a roof. She was still up, shivering over the coals. I demanded food, but she burst into tears and told me there was none. I fiercely ordered her to go and get some. She turned her eyes upon me, the tears fast rolling down her pale face.

"At this moment the child in the cradle awoke and set up a famished wail, startling the despairing mother like a serpent's sting.

"'We have no food James—I have had none for two days. I have nothing for the babe. My once kind husband, must we starve?'

"That sad pleading face, and those streaming eyes, and the feeble wail of the child maddened me, and I—yes, I struck her a fierce blow in the face, and she fell forward upon the hearth. The furies of hell boiled in my bosom, and with deep intensity as I felt I had committed a wrong. I had never struck Mary before, but now some terrible impulse bore me on, and I stooped down as well as I could in my drunken state and clinched both hands in her hair.

"'God of mercy,' exclaimed my wife, as she looked up in my fiendish countenance, 'you will not kill us, you will not harm Willie,' as she sprang to the cradle and grasped him in her embrace. I caught her again by the hair, and dragged her to the door, and as I lifted the latch the wind burst in with a cloud of snow. With a wild 'ha! ha!' I closed the door and turned the button, her pleading moan mingling with the blast and the sharp cry of her babe. But my work was not complete. I turned to the bed where lay my eldest son, and I snatched him from his slumbers, and against his half awakened struggles, opened the door and threw him out. In agony of fear he called me by a name I was not fit to hear, and locked his little fingers in my side pocket. I could not wrench that frenzied grasp away, and with the coolness of a devil as I was, I shut the door upon his arm, and with my knife severed the wrist."

The speaker ceased a moment, and buried his face in his trembling hands, as if to shut out some fearful dream, and his deep chest heaved like a storm swept sea. My father had arisen from his seat and was leaning forward, his countenance bloodless, and the large drops standing upon his brow. Chills crept back to my heart, and I wished I was home. The old man looked up, and I never since beheld such mortal agony pictured upon a human face as there was on his. He continued:

"It was morning when I awoke, and the storm had ceased, but the cold was intense. I first secured a drink of water, and then I looked in the accustomed place for Mary. As I missed her, for the first time a shadowy sense of some horrible nightmare began to dawn upon my wandering mind. I thought I had dreamed a fearful dream, but involuntarily opened the outside door with shuddering dread.

"As the door opened the snow burst in followed by a fall of something across the threshold, scattering the snow, and striking the floor with a hard, sharp sound. My blood shot like red hot arrows through my veins, and I rubbed my eyes to shut out the sight. It was—it—Oh, God, how horrible! it was my injured Mary, and her babe, frozen to ice.

"The ever true mother had bowed herself over the child to shield it, and had wrapped all her own clothing around it, leaving her own person stark and bare. She had placed her hair over the face of the child, and the sleet had frozen it to the white cheek. The frost was white in its half opened eyes, and upon its tiny fingers. I know not what became of my brave boy."

Again the old man bowed his head and wept, and all that were in the house wept with him. In tones of low, heart broken pathos, the old man concluded:

"I was arrested, and for long months raved in delirium. I awoke, was sentenced to prison for ten years, but no torture could equal those in my own bosom. O, God! no! I am not a fanatic, I wish to injure no one. But while I live, let me strive to warn others not to enter the path which has been so dark and fearful a one to me. I could see my angel mother, wife and children beyond this vale of tears."

The old man sat down, but a spell as deep and strange as that wrought by some wizard's breath rested upon the audience. Hearts could have been heard in their beating, and tears to fall. The old man then asked the people to sign the pledge. My father leaped from his seat and snatched at it eagerly. I had followed him as he hesitated a moment with his pen in the ink; a tear fell from the old man's eye upon the paper.

"Sign it, young man, sign it. Angels would sign it. I would write my name ten thousand times in blood if it would bring back my loved ones."

My father wrote his name "Mortimer Hudson."

The old man looked, wiped his tearful eyes, and looked again, his countenance alternately flushed with red and death like paleness.

"It is—no, it cannot be, yet how strange," muttered the old man. "Pardon me, sir, but that is the name of my brave boy."

My father trembled and held up his left arm from which the hand had been severed. They looked for a moment into each other's eyes, both reeled and exclaimed:

"My own injured boy!"

"My father!"

They fell upon each other till it seemed their souls would grow and mingle into one. There was weeping in that church, and I turned bewildered upon the streaming eyes around me.

"Let me thank God for this great blessing, which has gladdened my guilt-burthened soul," exclaimed the old man, and kneeling down poured out his heart in one of the most melting prayers I ever heard. The spell was broken, and all eagerly signed the pledge, slowly going to their homes as loth to leave the spot. The old man is dead, but the lesson he taught the grandchild on his knee, as his evening sun went down without a cloud, will never be forgotten. His fanaticism has lost none of its fire in my manhood's heart.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they find his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

⁂ IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so [illegible] to secure the reputation of the Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in [illegible] to the invaluable success [illegible] has marked the career [illegible] Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this [illegible] to enumerate [illegible] complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that [illegible]

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with [illegible] sidiousness the very life [illegible] victims; in the [illegible] cure of which the Institute [illegible] earned so enviable a reputation.
